BLONDE OF THE MONTH

For the third month in a row, Nickaela is here in our Blonde of the Month column. Very early one morning, Vee, still in bed, got a phone call from an unknown number. Wondering who was calling at such a crazy hour, she picked up. It was Nickaela and she was using her personal trainer's phone. She was at the gym and had locked her keys as well as her phone in her car. She needed someone to bring her the spare keys. So Vee called Nicholas to go to Natalie's house to get Nickaela's spare keys and take them to the gym. Nicholas didn't know where the gym was nor did he have any data for Google Maps. Vee had to get out of bed, put on her computer, log in to her internet banking and buy Nicholas some data so he could go take the spare keys to Nickaela. Luckily, Nickaela made it to work on time due to everyone's efforts!

Carmen forgot her riding hat at home. She tried on all the spare hats at the yard but nothing fitted. So mom quickly rushed her off to Western Shoppe to buy a new one. Her mom said she can choose any hat she likes. Carmen went through all the hats available and even with the opportunity to get something different, she choose the exact same hat that was left at home!
